

C.R.A.F.T.S. for Am. Studies

CONTEXT	ROLE	AUDIENCE	FORMAT	TOPIC	STRONG VERB just after Henry's "Give Me Liberty or Give Me Death" speech	Loyalist	Patrick Henry	persuasive letter	why we should not go to war	convince after the Boston Tea Party and before the Coercive Acts	one of the Sons of Liberty	British Parliament	press release	the damage we will experience under the Coercive Acts	explain after the battle of Gettysburg	wife or mother waiting at home	soldier	letter	how to hold on and be strong	encourage pre-Civil War South, when cotton was "king"	wealthy plantation owner	someone who would like to become wealthy	how-to guide	making money in the South	inform 1830s Jacksonian Democracy	TV newsman	American people	news story	nullification	announce after Lincoln's Gettysburg Address	newspaper writer	people who were not able to attend the ceremony	editorial in a newspaper	what we can do to support Lincoln's cause	persuade after Lincoln's assassination	preacher	congregation	sermon	how to carry on without our leader	soothe preparing for Johnson's impeachment	lawyer who would like to defend the President	President Johnson	résumé	what makes you qualified to take on this job	argue during the Constitutional Convention	Virginia delegate	Rhode Island delegate	speech	reasons to adopt the Great Compromise	urge debating the ratification of the U.S. Constitution	Mercy Otis Warren	Federalists	memo	the lack of a bill of rights in the Constitution	warn