

The Scarlet Letter Chapter Groups

You must become an expert in your part of the story.

1. Summarize your section, including an explanation of what most important plot event occurs in your part of the novel.
2. Write the two most important level two questions for each chapter.
3. Answer these questions with at least one paragraph each.
4. Write two important level three questions for your section.
5. Answer these questions with at least one paragraph each.
6. Decide as a group which 2-3 motifs are most important in your part of the story and in the whole novel.

The Scarlet Letter Chapter Groups

You must become an expert in your part of the story.

1. Summarize your section, including an explanation of what most important plot event occurs in your part of the novel.
2. Write the two most important level two questions for each chapter.
3. Answer these questions with at least one paragraph each.
4. Write two important level three questions for your section.
5. Answer these questions with at least one paragraph each.
6. Decide as a group which 2-3 motifs are most important in your part of the story and in the whole novel.