

Stair Steps EC

Work these sentences on your own paper.
Be careful! DON'T BE FOOLED!

1. On the Fourth of July, Mark made Julia a present for no reason, but it was not a baseball bat to swing.
2. Julia wanted a baseball bat after her 5th birthday.
3. She wanted a new bat for her 14th birthday because she had become the best 2nd baseman on her team. (Work this one twice, once for each verb.)
4. At practice, her lively coach gave her lots of good advice to consider during the games. (Work this one twice, once for each verb.)
5. She remained receptive to all of it.
6. He said, "Bats higher," and "Uniforms dirtier," and "More chatter."
7. At every game after that, Julia's team won.
8. Her parents watched in awe and with great admiration for their daughter.
9. Maybe she will join the Olympics team after high school graduation.
10. Her whole community will be proud of her then.